- 4) This is originally where you purchased your ticket. Where before, this pink box said “Buy Ticket”, now that you have purchased it should say “Watch Now”.

- 5) NOW JUST CLICK ON WATCH NOW, AND ENJOY THE SHOW ON ANY COMPUTER, PHONE OR DEVICE

WATCH ON TV

- 1) If you have an Apple TV BOX (and not Apple +), you can watch the show on your TV directly by tuning into the WALL STREET THEATER APP in the Apple TV App store.
- 2) If you have ROKU DVR, you can watch the show by logging into the WALL STREET THEATER CHANNEL.

In both cases, enter your email and password as you would on a computer or device

- 3) Any TV manufactured after 2015 will permit your device to be connected by either an HDMI Cable or wirelessly, with additional equipment. Consult your manual to see how to connect, or write us at info@wallstreettheater for further assistance

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

- 1) You cannot log in with a standard “smart TV” by entering the Wall Street web address. You must utilize the above
- 2) You can watch the show on virtually any platform, device or computer
- 3) DO NOT log in with Internet Explorer. The odds are good you will not be able to access the stream. Any other platform works
- 4) The show starts at 8PM Eastern Time, but the stream will be “open” for 15 minutes prior to the gig. If you see a blank stage, just wait and the show will be on shortly
- 5) You can still watch the show for up to 7 days following the performance
- 6) The show has an audience which is compliant with Connecticut state rules for COVID-19 protection.

THANK YOU, AND ENJOY
